Dear Miss Cooke:

I am in receipt of your letter and photographs of the girls to be chosen for your yearbook, The Growler.

It is a great pleasure and honor for me to act as judge of the contest, and if it were up to me I would like to choose each and every one as the winner.

However, as that is not possible, I have chosen the five girls as marked on the back of the photographs.

My very best wishes.

Sincerely,

PERRY COMO

Dear Miss Cooke;

Thank you for your kind letter of February 6th and the invitation to judge your Beau Brummel contest.

Mr. Allen and I had a difficult time making our choices since all the young men seemed so handsome. We did our best, however, and trust that the losers will not feel unkindly toward us.

All good wishes to the young people of Moss Point High School.
